Reserving a conference room for a WebEx Meeting in Outlook

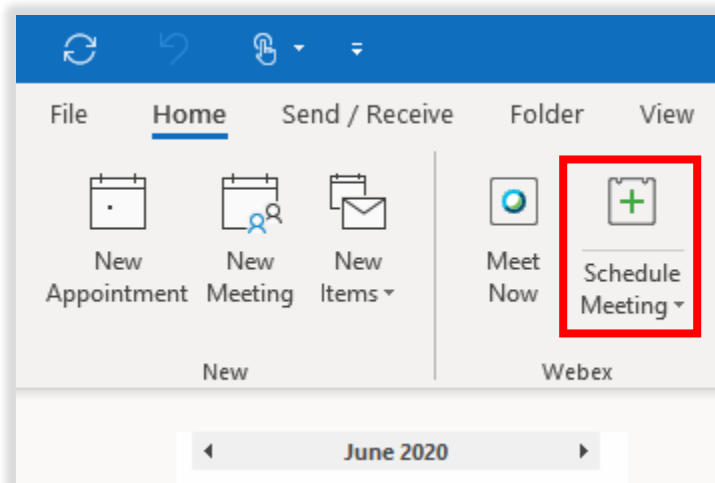

This section explains how to use Outlook with the WebEx Productivity tools to reserve a conference room and schedule a WebEx meeting at the same time. This is the simplest method and recommended for ease of use.

Note:

- To schedule a WebEx meeting, you will need to have a WebEx account. If you do not have a WebEx account, please request one through the Service Desk.
- If you do not have WebEx Productivity Tools Installed, please contact the NIH IT Service Desk by calling 301-496-8294 or visiting <https://itservicedesk.nih.gov/Support/> and submitting a ticket.
- Before selecting a conference room for reservation, please ensure it has a computer or Video Conferencing equipment to use for a WebEx Meeting. If you are unsure about what equipment is in a conference room, please contact UCCConferenceRoomSupport@mail.nih.gov.
